        Bb                            D
She had 3 more lovers, but they all got cold feet
      Gm                                  C
and I know that there were others, but she is so discrete
      Bb                 F            Eb
Yet a wave of his hand s enough to get her back again
     Bb                            D
She made it through highschool and she got a degree
       Gm                             C
and I know in different ways she s a lot smarter than me
      Bb                 F            Eb          Bb Bb
Yet a wave of his hand s enough to get her back again
```

  Gm                          Bb
I dispise every word that he speaks,
       Gm                   F
 cos he tries to make her feel weak
          Eb                     F
And he ll put her down in public and he treats her like a child
         Gm                        C
but he ll never make a lapdog out of something so wild
    Bb                 F                    Gm    Eb
Yet a wave of his hand s enough to get her back again
    Bb                 F                 Eb
Yet a wave of his hand s enough to get her back again
    Bb                       D
And I tried to convince her, to make it on her own
        Gm                      C
But she s afraid to be a spinster, afraid to be alone
```

        Bb                      F                       F
Yet a wave of his hand............

solo

I dispise every move that he makes cos I know what he s trying to break

And he ll put her down......etc.
