Slow, and I can t wait
as the day turns inside out

E
Night falls on you darling, darling it falls on me too

B and I m tired and I can t sleep
but I try so I can dream

E
You know, forever s awhile
and tomorrows still a night away

C#m and it s late

F#
and I just wanna go home

B B/A#
G#m Em
B B/A#
G#m Em

B

I fly over the sea
and the planes I see you

E

hanging on the wing darling, darling holding onto me

B

Passed out in my room your breath is sunny and warm

E

you know, forever s a while and tomorrows still cold and gray

C#m F#

and it s late and I just wanna go home

B

Don t say you ll miss me

E

cuz I know you miss me

Em B

keep blowing me kisses over the phone

B

don t say you ll leave me

E

cuz I know you won t leave me

Em B

you know it took years for you to stay

C#m

I don t love you to death

but I d die if you left

C#m

from state to state, you know I d race

F# A

but nobody knows which exit is yours

F# D# B B E B E

C#m

There is a place in the red light district

B
of your heart that I used to visit

E
It s been boarded

Em
I can t afford it anymore

B B/A#
G#m Em

B (with Fig. 1)
E

End on B

Note:

Frankly, I can t tell if the intro/transition chords are B-B/A#-G#m-Em or B-F#/A#-

E/G#-Em. I think the first version sounds better, but whatever you like. One of my favorite songs (and bands). Here s hoping Miles gets his new album out this year.
