

First Time

Beverley Knight

First tab time- but i m sure this is right- may not be with the music yet sounds good anyways. Decided to work this out after seeing her in concert- amazing!

Sounds better with the chords played as barre chords- but can be played ern..non barred

Takes a while to get the rythmn right- ive situated the chords on exactly which word the change is.

G >>A

I lie

Bm G

I try to speak

D A

But my tongue gets tied

Bm G

I try to seek

D A

But you re hard to find

Bm G

My will is weak

D A

Cause my soul s resigned

Bm G A D

It s like I m seeing you for the first time

Still I feed my faith

Though it has no ground

And I tell myself I m safe

As we re falling down

You said you d let me know

If the end was near

Now do I let you go?

It s still unclear

But oh, good sense has gone to waste

And oh, it fades in your embrace

I know what keeps me in this place

Your smile

I try to speak

But my tongue gets tied

I try to seek

But you re hard to find

My will is weak

Cause my soul s resigned

It s like I m seeing you for the first time

And oh (whenever I try to speak) my tongue gets tied

And oh (whenever I try to seek) you re hard to find

And oh (whenever I try to feel) my soul s resigned

It s like I m seeing you, for the first time

It s like I m seeing you

It s like I m seeing you

It s like I m, I m seeing you

It s like I m seeing you
