

Love Drought
Beyonce

[Verse]

C#m

Ten times out of nine, I know you re lying

But nine times outta ten, I know you re trying

G#m

So I m trying to be fair

And you re trying to be there and to care

C#m

And you re caught up in your permanent emotions

All the loving I ve been giving goes unnoticed

G#m

It s just floating in the air, lookie there

C#m

Are you aware you re my lifeline, are you tryna kill me

If I wasn t me, would you still feel me?

G#m

Like on my worst day? Or am I not thirsty, enough?

C#m

I don t care about the lights or the beams

Spend my life in the dark for the sake of you and me

G#m

Only way to go is up, skin thick, too tough

[Chorus]

C#m

Cause you, you, you, you and me could move a mountain

C#m

You, you, you, you and me could calm a war down

C#m

You, you, you, you and me could make it rain now

C#m

G#m

You, you, you, you and me could stop this love drought

[Verse 2]

C#m

Nine times out of ten, I m in my feelings

But ten times out of nine, I m only human

G#m

Tell me, what did I do wrong?

Feel like that question has been posed

I m movin on

C#m

I ll always be committed, I been focused

I always paid attention, been devoted

G#m

Tell me, what did I do wrong?

Oh, already asked that, my bad

C#m

But you my lifeline, think you tryna kill me?

If I wasn t me, would you still feel me?

G#m

Like on my worst day? Or am I not thirsty, enough?

C#m

I don t care about the lights or the beams

Spend my life in the dark for the sake of you and me

G#m

Only way to go is up, them old bitches so wack

I m so tough, wassup?

[Chorus]

C#m

Cause you, you, you, you and me could move a mountain

C#m

You, you, you, you and me could calm a war down

C#m

You, you, you, you and me could make it rain now

C#m

You, you, you, you and me would stop this love drought
