

Welcome To My Kitchen
Bic Runga

Welcome to my Kitchen - Bic Runga
Transcribed by Peter Tangney

G# A#

G# G
Welcome to my kitchen, I will just about be dishing

Cm D#
Up as much as you can take, scoop my heart into a plate

G# G
Step into the light, and my eyes are open wide

Cm D#
Let me flash at you a smile, that I ve been practising a while

G# A#
As much as you can take

G# G
If I fall off the stage, will you feel fully entertained?

Cm D#
Well I really don t mind if you re not listening

G# G
I could be myself I could be somebody else

Cm D#
There s a million other people that I d rather be

G# A#
But it s much too much too late

chorus:

D# G Cm
All welcome tonight, hope you re feeling alright

A# D#
I could be cornering myself

G Cm
Out here in a daze, don t believe what I say

A#
I m full of promises of..

G# G
I should be alone in my.. I should have stayed at home

Cm D#
These butterflies inside wanna take me for a ride

G# G
It s over pretty quickly, still it makes me feel quite sickly

Cm

D#

And I hope that you don't mind, you know I do this all the time

G#

A#

I often wonder why

chorus:

D#

G

Cm

All welcome tonight, hope you're feeling alright

A#

D#

I could be cornering myself

G

Cm

Out here in a daze, don't believe what I say

A#

I'm full of promises oh no..

D#

G

Cm

La la la la la la hope you're feeling alright

A#

D#

G

Cm

All welcome tonight hope you're feeling alright

A#

end on D#