it goes on just in the same pattern from here on ;)

Face to face with the ball and chain
My bobbly head flapping till its red
I tell my secrets and you took my pain
About a broken heart and I will do it again

Son of Henry, I m the first in line
To the throne, smell my mustard gas
I slash swords through your wooden spine
Well it cut my heart and it blew my head

I want to scream one last death medley
I am looking for a reason to secure a forward motion

Love that golden rule that golden rule
Need that golden rule that golden rule
Secrets are the truth they are the truth
We need that silver rule that silver rule
