Standing here in the presence

Of something more than merely real
There are no words to describe you
Or explain the way I feel

As you speak I find healing for my soul

And your touch alone can make me whole

And my heart cries Holy

E Bsus4 E/G# A2

And my spirit feels the change

As my heart cries Holy

I will never be the same
Your mercies toward me last forever
Your faithfulness is true
And as You touch the coal to my lips
My mind is made brand new
I could never repay all that You ve done
So use my life to the glory of Your Son

Everything inside me, Everything untrue

Oh Lord I surrender, All of it to You
