

Elvis

Big Head Todd And The Monsters

[Intro]

D G

[Verse]

D G
Somewhere underneath the smoke and light

D G
Oh the King, he sings of heaven

D G
Yes, he believes there s a paradise

D G
And a band is playing there

D G
Outside there s a black car waiting

D G
Filled with lovely ladies for celebration

D G
He wipes the tears from his eyes

D G
For all his lonely lovemaking

[Chorus]

D F C G
Oh yeah. Whenever will you love me?

D F C G
Yeah yeah yeah babe. Whenever will you love me?

[Verse]

D G
Flowers fall at his feet

D G
Blink through the lights of suspicious minds

D G
Oh, I know someday, you ll find your feet

D G
I know you ll find your peace of mind

[Chorus]

D F C G
Oh, yeah. Whenever will you love me?

D F C G
Yeah yeah yeah, babe. Whenever will you love me?

D F C G
Yeah yeah yeah, babe. Whenever will you love me?

[Verse]

D G
Somewhere underneath the smoke and lights

D G
Oh the King, he sings of heaven

D G
Yes, I m sure there s a paradise

D G
And brother, he is playing there

[Chorus]

D F C G
Oh, yeah. Whenever will you love me?

D F C G
Yeah yeah yeah, babe. Whenever will you love me?

D F C G
Yeah yeah yeah, babe. Whenever will you love me?