verse 1

E
My hair might be a little too long
A
for your taste, my friend
B
My car might cost a little less than E A B
that suit you re wearing
E
Im glad you stumbled in here
A
on your business trip
B
Before you close your tab
E
remember i play for tips
F#m B
Well i bet your wife is beautiful
F#m B
and you re a really big so and so
F#m B
Well im not doing bad myself,
A B
hey friend dont you know

chorus

E
I play guitar and I sing my
A
songs in the sunshine
F#m B
Captain and Cokes and barroom jokes
E A B
keep me feeling fine
E
And theres always a stage and a
A
beautiful babe to squeeze my lime
F#m B
In my simple way i guess you could say
E
im living in the big time

verse 2

E

I know i ll probably

A

never make a million bucks

B

But savings accounts and

E

A B

the IRS never worry me much

E

I dont need that stuff cause

A

i got friends like you

B

to buy me drinks, have boats and

E

planes that i can use

F#m

B

I know you re really living

F#m

B

in that house up on a hill

F#m

B

So if you feel like giving,

B

friend i ve got a jar to fill

(repeat chorus)

Bridge

E

A

Im having the time of my life

F#m

No worries on my mind

E

A B

Everthings just fine

E

A

Today is even better than yesterday

F#m

Everything is going my way

E

A B

Im living in the big time

E

And theres always a stage and a

A

beautiful babe to squeeze my lime

F#m

B

In my simple way guess you could say

E

im living in the big time

F#m

B

In my simple way guess you could say

E

im living in the big time
