

Cover Girl

Big Time Rush

I dont know why you always get so insecure
I wish you could see what I see when youre looking in the mirror
And why wont you believe me when I say
That to me you get more beautiful, everyday

When youre looking at the magazines
And thinking that youll never measure up
You re wrong

Cause youre my cover, cover girl
I think youre a superstar, yeah you are
Why dont you know
Yeah, youre so pretty that it hurts
Its whats underneath your skin
The beauty that shines within
You re the only one that rocks my world

My cover girl
Ohhhhhhh, my cover girl, ohhhhhhhh

You walk in rainboots on a perfect summer day
Somehow you always see the dark side, when everythings okay
And you wear baggy clothes that camoflague your shape
Whoa, but you know that I love you, just the way youre made

When youre looking at the magazines

And thinking that youre just not good enough
