Hotel Piano Biirdie

Hotel Piano by Biirdie Chords D-A-Bm-G

D A

Listen to the hotel piano,

D A

And in your eyes I see which way the wind blows

So my sweet little town it's time to put you down

Don't bury in the back yard of your mind.

D A

Morning comes tired and stoned.

Sliding down black and blue rainbows

Bm G

I can see the sun rise into Miami skies

D G

I can see your face come back to me.

G (all the way through)

(Chorus) and if itâ \in [™]s true then itâ \in [™]s true then itâ \in [™]s true x2 And itâ \in [™]s you.

And if it's you it's you it's you x2 I am true

Verses 3 and 4 are the same as the previous. D-A-Bm-G-D-G

Chase the sleep away and then off you go. In mother $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{N}$ new clothes and bags you know. To sail to the moon, always leave too soon. Always leave with the radio turned on.

At the Massachusetts Chinese restaurant In between somewhere and where you are. Iâ \in [™]ve seen familiar faces in unfamiliar places I wish it would all just go away.

There's a mansion on a hill and it's not too far.

Where ever you are $\hat{\mathbb{I}} \in \mathbb{I}$ be your shooting star. Itâ $\in \mathbb{I}$ getting dark in Echo Park You are you are You are the strangest thing to me.

Fantastic song I put an improv where the electronic break is its sounds pretty good. This is easy to play, hard to play well...
