

Then You Came
Bill and Murray

I don't think someone posted any chords for this song yet.
It's a song by a really great duo, here is a link to their website:
<http://billandmurray.bandcamp.com/releases>
You can also listen to the song there.
This is a really nice song for beginners, due to that really slow rhythm.
If you can't play barre chords yet, you can capo the 2nd fret and transpose down by 2 half-steps.
Anyway, here it goes:

Intro: E / A / F#m / A

E You know I heard,
A
about that world
F#m
you re living in.
A
You know I used to live there too

E

There was a sound,

a certain ambiance.

A

It s very easy to fall in love with it.

F#m A

It s very easy to think it loves you too.

E
 But you should remember
 last December,
 A
 there was rain on my windowpane.
 F#m
 There was pain in my heart,
 and pain in my brain.
 A
 When all my hopes went up in flames.
 E
 But then you came.

Doo, doo do do doo.
A
Doo do do doo.

Doo do do doo.

F#m

Doo do do doo.

Doo do do doo.

A

Doo do do doo.

Doo do do doo.

E

And then you came...

Now you just repeat the song again, the chords are the same, the singing is just different.

Remember that you have to notice the half-bar E in the beginning of the song, or you'll lose the rhythm.

Please rate if it helped you in any way :)
