

He Is Lord

Bill & Gloria Gaither

[Verses]

F        Gm        C                F
He is Lord, He is Lord.
              Dm                                G7
He has risen from the dead
                              C
And He is Lord.
                              F                                F7
Every knee shall bow,
                              Bb                                Gm
Every tongue confess
                              F                C                F
That Jesus Christ is Lord

F        Gm        C                F
You are Lord, You are Lord.
              Dm                                G7
You have risen from the dead
                              C
And You are Lord.
                              F                                F7
Every knee shall bow,
                              Bb                                Gm
Every tongue confess
                              F                C                F
That Jesus Christ is Lord

F        Gm        C                F
He s my Lord, He s my Lord.
              Dm                                G7
He has risen from the dead
                              C
And He s my Lord.
                              F                                F7
Yes my knee shall bow,
                              Bb                                Gm
Yes my tongue confess
                              F                C                F
That Jesus Christ is Lord
