

Resplendent

Bill Mallonee

Resplendent

Words & Music: Bill Mallonee

Transcribed by Alec Liddle

Chords:

Fmaj7: xx3210

Am: x02210

G: 320003

Em: 022000

C: x32010

Capo 5

Verse 1:

Fmaj7 Am G Fmaj7
I remember the dark clouds raining dust for days on end

Fmaj7 G Am
Blew all the Earth out to California

G Fmaj7
Just left us here with the wind

Fmaj7 Am
Desperate times, you know everybody's part

G Fmaj7
It's your own lines you'd like to forget

Fmaj7 G Am
Till what you were meets what you've now become

G Fmaj7 Am
And grins and says Hey, haven't we met

Am Em Fmaj7 C G Am

Verse 2:

Lost my first born that Winter
My wife on the first day of Spring
So I poured my sweat to the Earth to see what that harvest would bring

And I remember how the fury
just like a plague of locusts
Egypt s punishment for sins of pride
Is that now what has come over us

Chorus:

Fmaj7 Am G
How much of this was meant to be
Am G Fmaj7
How much the work of the Devil
G Am Fmaj7
How far can one man s eyes really see
Am G Fmaj7 Am
In these days of toil and trouble

Am Em Fmaj7 C G Am

Verse 3:

Honey, we re all resplendent,
Yeah honey, we are all thrift store
Like a wine-o with a $20 bill
Yeah, forever and eternally yours
And I can make you promises
If you don t expect too much,
Yes, and I will run the distance
If you ll please, please excuse my crutch

Chorus 2:

How much of this was meant to be
How much the work of the Devil
How far can one man s eyes really see
In these days of toil and trouble
How much of this is failing flesh
How much a course of retribution
My, my, how loudly we plead our innocence
Long after we made our contribution

Please visit www.billmallonee.net