

Soliloquy

Bill Mallonee

Soliloquy

Words and Music: Bill Mallonee

Transcribed by Alec Liddle

Chords:

D/A: x0023x

D/F#: 20023x

G: 32003x

Em: 022000

A7sus4: x0203x

D/G: 30023x

G/B: x2003x

Capo 2

Verse 1:

D/A D/F# G

One to get my tongue loosened

D/A D/F# G

Two for a broken heart

D/A D/F# G

Three for all of that wreckage that we,

Em A7sus4

Left in the dark

D/A D/F# G

So, one more, yeah the neon s getting fuzzy

D/A D/F# G

Two, hey pal, can you help me find my keys?

D/A D/F# G

Three, if you could point me in the right direction,

Em A7sus4

Well I might get home again

D/A D/F# G

Well I ll tell you frankly what I think about it,

D/A D/F# G

From this bully pulpit barstool,

D/A D/F# G

And everybody s nodding but nobody s listening,

Em A7sus4

To, to this fool

Chorus:

D/G D/F# D/G D/F#

Fumbling for some loose pocket change,

D/G G/B G

To spend at a payphone in the rain,

Em G

To say I m sorry a thousand times,

D/A D/F# G

Again

Verse 2:

Yeah your heart kid, seems to be open,
But round here, tonight it s closing time
And that lame-ass way you have of coping,
You can read between the lines
There is a very old saying,
Known by every boxer in the ring
You tell yourself whe your cut and bleeding,
You don t feel a thing

Chorus

Please visit www.billmallonee.net