Mount St Helens Is About To Blow Up
Bill Wurtz

[Verse 1]
```
        G
Mount St. Helens is about to blow up
                    C         G
And it s gonna be a fine, swell day
                  G             Em/A        A       Dsus4
Everything s gonna fall down to the ground and turn grey
          G                                           C     G
All of my friends, family, and animals are probably going to run away
    C              Em7                A7    D7    G
But me, I m feeling curious, so I think I just might stay
```

[Verse 2]
```
Dsus4    G                                  C           G
The Dow Jones just fell down to zero and it s gonna be a fine, swell day
      C           Bm          Em7        Dsus4    D
And I wonder if it s gonna be as good a day as yesterday
            G
All of these business suits that I ve just purchased
              C           G
Gonna have to throw them all away
    C       Cm          Bm    Em7        A7       D7    G
And slip into something more reasonable and then dance the night away

[Bridge 1]
          Fm7         Bb7
I m riding a pony
         Ebmaj7

Everything s green and gold

So I m not in Hell yet
        Fm                Bb7              F    F/E
And the people who work in my office went on vacation
     Dm7             Dm7/C      Bbm7          Bbm7/Db    Eb7
 Cause they say that I haven t been paying them very much anymore

              C           Cm          Bm7 Em      A7       D7      G
And we ll figure out all of the details in climate change court

[Bridge 2]
                     Fm7      Bb7
Take a ride on my blimp
           Ebmaj7
Oh, it s a very strong blimp
                 Fm7                Bb7
You can watch movies and play games

While riding on it
          Am7        Abmaj7        Bbmaj7        Gm7/D

Mount St. Helens is feeling crazy and adventurous

And it takes no answers

And it gives no questions
        Am7          Dsus4       D
And it makes no excuses
        Am7                D
And it really doesn t listen
        Am7          D
And it seems so eccentric
        Am7        D
And it looks so active
        Am7        D          Em7
And it dreams of puppies
