Billy Bragg

CINDY OF A THOUSAND LIVES - written by Billy Bragg

(Tabbed by Jake Trostle)

D

Blue velvet America

Bm G

Half glimpsed in the headlights between the trees

D

Who punctured the beauty

Em G

And invited monsters such as these

A

The pig faced boy, the corrupted clown

Em G D

The grotesque figure who never comes into town

--BRIDGE-----

((D F Em))) x2

D

Something broken, something stained

Bm G

Something waiting for the worms to claim

D

And you can never go there again

Em G

Except in nightmares

A

The voyeur who dares not come near

Em G D

Knows excitement is merely the beginning of fear

((D F Em))

BRIDGE II-----

((A E7 A E)) x3

((D D Dm))

(( Em                    G                    D ))     x2

-----

D

My shadow came this morning

Bm                            G                            D
And left some candy in my (ass) shoe

D
They re always watching me

Em                            G
Watching the things I do

A
Cindy of a thousand lives

Em                    G                            D
Cindy of the Stepford Wha-aha-aha-aha-ives

D

I ve looked at all the photographs

F                            Em                            D
But Cindy, which one of them was you?

-----

it s right enough
this is a very inspiring song written by a very underrated musician.
Keep rockin n lov'n
