The Only One (Billy Bragg)

intro: E (7th) G#m (4th) C#m (4th) D#/B (main riff)

note: play main riff throughout all the verses

Sometimes when you lose your way to me

I think you don t care at all

If you don t get here soon

I ll tear that clock down from the wall

Your family and friends don t understand

They treat me so strange

The book you said to read

Well I have read but nothings changed

The clocks go forward the clocks go back

G#m

C#m

Yet here I sit as if I were the only one
(main riff)

And oh you cannot hear me

Oh you cannot hear me

Can anybody hear me out there

(main riff)

He s up on high horse again

You re down in the park

I m left to fight my impulses alone here in the dark

The chain that fell off my bike last night

Is now wrapped round my heart

Sometimes I think that

Fate has been against us from the start

I long to let our love run free

G#m

C#m

Yet here I am a victim of geography

(main riff)

And oh you cannot hear me

Oh you cannot hear me

Can anybody hear me out there

She said kiss me or would you rather

G#m

C#m

Live in a land where the soap won t lather

(main riff)

And oh...

You know you are the only one

Yes you are the only one

Yes you are the only one
