Richard Richard belongs to Jayne (G, C, G) And Jayne belongs to yesterday (C, G) How can I go on (G, C, G) When every alpha particle hides A neon nucleus (C, D) (riff on G) Neil belongs to love And love belongs to no man How can he go on When no-one answers the adverts in his mind? [Chorus] There will be parties, there will be fun (B, G) There will be prizes for everyone (B, G) And hey, hey, here comes Richard (${\bf C}$ descending to ${\bf Am}$, ${\bf G}$ riff) There will be ladies dressed in lace I just want to see her face When hey, hey, here comes Richard You helped me build this bed But you won t help me sleep in it When I fall between you and the wall Our titanic love affair sails on the morning tide (scale lead riff) Our titanic love affair sails on the morning tide (scale lead riff) Our titanic love affair sails on the morning tide (scale lead riff) [Chorus] I really love you style Did you read it in the Look and Learn? How long can we go on? Do you think I only love you Because you sleep with other boys [Chorus] (note: â€~pretty face') Repeat â€~hey hey hey' part for a bit and â€~here comes Richard' on G.
