Billy Joel

This tab is of Sometimes a Fantasy from Billy Joel s 1980 album, Glass Houses.

Intro: A D x2

verse 1:
D                                  D A
I didn t want to do it but I got too lonely
D                                         A
I had to call you up in the middle of the night
G                                             D
I know it s awful hard to try to make love long distance
C                   Em
But I really needed stimulation
G                   A
Though it was only my imagination

D          A  Bm
It s just a fantasy
     A          Bm
It s not the real thing
D          A  Bm
It s just a fantasy
     A          Bm
It s not the real thing
D          A  Bm
Sometimes a fantasy
            C        F       C       F
Is all you need

verse 2:
D                              D A
When am I gonna take control get a hold of my emotions
D                                         A
Why does it only seem to hit me in the middle of the night
G                                         D
You told me there s a number I can always dial for assistance
C                   Em
I don t want to deal with outside action
G                   A
Only you can give me satisfaction

D            A  Bm
It s just a fantasy
     A           Bm
It s not the real thing

            C
Is all you need

verse 3:
D                            D A
Sure it would be better if I had you here to hold me
D                                          A
Be better baby but believe me it s the next best thing
G                                          D
I m sure there s many times you ve wanted me to hear your secrets
C                     Em
Don t be afraid to say the words that move me
G                    A
Anytime you want to tell them to me

D            A  Bm
It s just a fantasy
     A           Bm
It s not the real thing
D           A  Bm
