Fading Into Grey
Billy Lockett

[Verse]
```
                C#m
Is there anyone there?
          B
 Cause lately you ve not been yourself
          F#
Am I overthinking

```
Or are you thinking  bout somebody else?
                        C#m
Am I going crazy now?
                B
Keep on talking to myself
                        F#
Is everything changing?

```
I swear you ve been changing
```

[Pre-Chorus]
```
                        C#m
How long can I try to pretend
                    G#m
That it s all in my head?
                                    F#m
 Cause I just don t want to forget what we were feeling
Regret that we were gold
```

[Chorus]
```
                C#m
If you re out of love
                    B
All you gotta do is say
                                        F#
Promise you won t make me wait around for nothing
Fading into grey
                C#m
If you re out of love
                    B
All you gotta do is say
                                        F#
Promise you won t make me wait around for nothing
Fading into grey
```

[Verse 2]
```
                        C#m
I can t go any further
          G#m
```

I ve already given too much
                                    F#m
For me there s no other

But for you that was never enough

[Pre-Chorus]
                 C#m
I try to pretend
                          G#m
That it s all in my head
                                          F#m
But I just don t want to forget what we were feeling
Regret that we were gold

[Chorus]
                  C#m
If you re out of love
                           B
All you gotta do is say
                                          F#
Promise you won t make me wait around for nothing
Fading into grey
                  C#m
If you re out of love
                           B
All you gotta do is say
                                          F#
Promise you won t make me wait around for nothing
Fading into grey

If you re out of love
                        B
All you gotta do is say

                                        F#
Promise you won t make me wait around for nothing
Fading into grey

```
                    C#m
If you re out of love

All you gotta do is say
