You know who you are

```
Unbreakable
Birds of Tokyo
[Verse 1]
You re taking the punches of a heavyweight
One by one they never hesitate
You ve had worse beatings
And you re still breathing
They ll tear you apart until there s nothing left
They ll pin you down and say It s over kid
You feel no fear
   Bm
All day, all year
[Chorus]
No one can make you change who you are
No one can take one beat from your heart
           \mathbf{Em}
When you re standing tall
You re unbreakable
                    G
No one can make you bend, you won t fold
                    Α
No one can take your shine, you re all gold
           Em
                     Bm

Step out of the dark into better light
And carry your scars like a badge of pride
You ve come so far
