Intro:
C
Verse:
                G
I was found out in the rushes.
                                         C
Like a can of paint and old paintbrushes.
                       Am
                               G
Like a ribbon wrapped around a small latch key.
                           G
Wicknor-Whatnot that s what you call me.
Verse:
I was sleeping on your patio.
                  G
Listening to your brand new radio.
                 Am G C
When you startled me aw-ake.
                                    G
I m a man - I insist you insist on a piece of cake.
C
C, C, C, [G, C] - G is brief, as is in Chorus.
Chorus:
Head out west,
Stake that claim,
And forget everybody else s name,
I cant say,
C
Knew you well,
```

C, Am, C, C
Verse:
         N.C.
You ve got eyes like Oklahoma.
                 G
Learned to swim in Lake Texoma.
               Am G C
Chances are you plan to leave too soon.
                   G C
Oklahoma that s what I ll call you!
Verse:
When you re left with nowhere else to go.
Try and get me on my telephone.
                 Am G
And you ll find I threw it in a lake.
You re a man - You insist I insist on a piece of cake.
C, C, C, [G, C] - G is brief, as is in Chorus.
Chorus:
Head out west,
Stake that claim,
                    C
          G
And forget everybody else s name,
I cant say,
Knew you well,
    G
Lets pretend so we can begin again.
C, Am, G, C,
C, Am, C, C
End on C.
