Switzerland
by The Last Bison

Tabbed by Andy Frey

*Note: You can play these chords in their standard chord shapes but they all sound great as an E-shape power chord, except for C#m which needs to be played in its standard barre chord shape.

E

We tried to sleep up in the banks of snow

E

But soon discovered it was far too cold

E

So we then retreated into town

E

To find a place where there was level ground

A
A-a-ah a-a-ah

E

Call home

A
O-o-o-oh o-o-oh

E

Call home

A Oh oh Switzerland you've taken away my breath now once again E B

You've left me with a sense of compassion

E B A
For the ones who can't pick themselves up off the ground

E B
Oh Switzerland I never thought I'd have you as a friend

A
I'm praying it was not at all pretend

E B A
I need you now to help pick me up from off the ground

(Intro picking)

E
Our drinks were hardly worth the price we paid

E
But we thank God for them anyway

E
With five minutes left we broke our backs

E
To spend more money than either of us had

A
A-a-ah A-a-ah

E
Call home
