I will die every day... till you re mine again
There s no words to explain... no beginning and no end
I will dream I will pray... you ll be mine again

[ just the same with Verse 1 ]
I can see you dressed in red all the secret things you said lying barefoot in the grass now my heart is in your hands Your hands...

It s just time that runs between us

D#m                  B
It s the ocean underneath us

D#m                  B                  F#                  C#                  D#m
It s the picture that won t fade... away, every day I will wait...
