And here i stand
i find myself alone again the miles iv e walked loss of hope and loss of friends
yet i keep on runnin
and i won t look back
the waters rise
you never know just where they re at

the waters turn
yeah,yeah
the hardships we endure
you aint the only son
or forgotton daughter
we all drown in blackend waters

the sun has set
the endless stream where nothing lastes forever damned
today to morrow and all the past
