F

(Verse/chorus chords repeated)

No one needs what they think to survive

Pulled inside with an appetite blind

You feast your eyes on American sex
You sleep in shores of American bliss
Growing wings from the sorrowless excess
Your frozen eyes cut the chord to their last depth
You share your young with the wolves of a nation
Thereâ€™s nothing left â€™til you pray for salvation

Itâ€™s all you want, you know youâ€™ll never forget
Your open arms, they only seem to surrender all that matters
Itâ€™s all you know, you know youâ€™ll never regret
Your open arms, they only seem to surrender all that matters
