The song is the same all the way through.

I trace your words with my finger tips
Writing your songs on my sleeve (?)
Maybe you re singing those songs for her
But soon you will sing them to me.

So throw her off the bridge
Just toss her in the drink
She s coming in between us
You know the girl I mean
It s time we were together
It s clear that I m the one
So throw her off the bridge
We both know it s gotta be done.
