Verse II:

You always take us for the fakest fools that s our status In your world where pathos defines the true
You d like to be mistook for an urban peasant or a farmer In your little drama nobody d be so fine as you
But you re weighed down by achin need
You might think that you re raggin me
But as far as I can see
There ain t no sense to your agony
So why do you make it out to be so rough?

Chorus:

La la la la la la love
La la la la la la love
Sit back & savour the red
Don t worry about what it was that you said
No, just shut up & take what you can get

Your situations babe are the kind that dogs dream of

Verse III:

You we always claimed to be among the maimed society s shamed
Bent bound & framed in the sin you wade in
So what if you scorched your fortune well I still don t think torture s
Somethin worth simulatin
You re constantly mismatchin
The disease that you got with the one that you re catchin
You can t keep goin around scratchin
Anybody who wasn t exactly how you d imagined

Chorus:

La la la la la la love
La la la la la la love
Sit back & savour the red
Your future ain t over just yet
So don t worry about what it was that you said
No, just shut up & take what you can get

Verse IV:

Princess of the plebs & the paupers hailing from some other World where you wouldn t have to deny her Inflence & your flight from wealth but babe you gotta be yourself Not just someone you happen to admire Your biggest mistake Is the way that you hesitate You couldn t expect me to wait For you to finally rise up & wake & wonder what it was you were dreaming of

Chorus:

La la la la la la love
La la la la la la love
Sit back & savour the red
Don t worry about what it was that you said
Your future ain t over just yet
No so shut up & take what you can get
