

Bare Skin Rug
Blake Shelton

Bare Skin Rug

D
(VS.1)

D A
Well the moon just came over the tree tops
A D
And the whippoorwill started to sing
D
So I slid down the hill
G
Got into the still
A D
And drank till my ears started to ring

(VS.2)

D A
I followed a trail to through the hollow
A D
To a shack back in the woods
D
Itâ€™s my eighteenth birthday
G
Honey come out and play
A D
Its time that we got to no good

(CHORUS)

D G
Now I ainâ€™t afraid to be lonely
A D
But I still wanna learn about love
D G
Iâ€™m a hillbilly child raised in the wild
A D
Come lay down on my bare skin rug

A (The song changes key when Miranda sings)

(VS.3)

A E
My dress is torn up and tattered
E A
My daddy left a long time ago
A

And my hair just hangs down

D

I never made it to town

E

A

Momma said that's where bad people go

(VS.4)

A

E

But me and my sister been talkin

E

A

She's eighteen one year older than me

A

She laid down with a man

D

E

I want to understand what she says

A

I ll never believe

(CHORUS)

A

D

Now I ain't afraid to be lonely

E

A

But I still wanna learn about love

A

D

I'm a hillbilly child raised in the wild

E

A

Lay me down on your bare skin rug

(BRIDGE)

E(?)

Now I need a woman

A

And I need a man

D

We ain't got nobody

E

An we ain't even kin

(CHORUS)

A

D

Now I ain't afraid to be lonely

E

A

But I still wanna learn about love

A

D

I'm a hillbilly child raised in the wild

E

A

Lay me down on your bare skin rug

(No Chord)

A

Come lay down on my bare skin