

Granddaddy's Gun
Blake Shelton

Intro: G C9 G C9

Verse:

G

It sits above the mantle on a couple rusty nails

C9

And it s worth a bunch of money but it damn sure ain t for sale

D

C9

The good Lord only knows all the stories it could tell

G

Granddaddy s gun

G

He bought it new out of a Sears & Roebuck catalog

C9

And it shot a many shell over the top of an old bird dog D

D

C9

And it backed a burglar down when grandma took the safety off

G

Granddaddy s gun

Chorus:

C9 G

It s just a double barrel 12

D Em

The stock is cracked and it kicks like hell

C9 G D

It wouldn t mean what it means to me to no one

C9 G

I can hear his voice when I put it to my shoulder

D Em

A gun s like a woman, son it s all how you hold her

C9 G D

He taught me a whole lot more than how to hunt

C9 G D

And one of these days I ll pass it on to my son

G C9

Granddaddy s gun

Verse 2:

G

He handed it to me on the day I turned 13

C9

With a half-shot box of shells and a kit to keep it clean

D C9

I keep a picture in the case of that sweet old man and me

G

With granddaddy s gun

Bridge: ( C9 G D )

C9 G
There s a long beard living on the living room wall
D
That I got with a box call
C9 G D
And granddaddy s gun
C9 G
There s a shot up stop sign on 49
D
That me and Billy Joe took out one night
