

Green

Blake Shelton

Green

Blake Shelton

Capo 2

Intro: D G G D x2

D A
People used to call me backwards
F#m G
Livin' out here with the tractors
D A G
Lettin' this world leave me behind
D A
Now a days I m an innovator
F#m G
I m a country boy prognosticator
D A D
Man, a man ahead of my time

G
I got a hundred acre farm
D
I got a John Deere in my barn
A D A F#m
I got a garden in my yard full of corn, peas, and beans
G
I got a guitar I play unplugged
D
I got a home grown girl I love
A
And when the summertime hits we skinny dip in the stream
G A D
I was green before green was a thing

D G G D

Sheets on the clothes line dryin
Redtail hawks a flyin
A couple of deer on the timberline
I know a lot more about cane pole fishin' than i ever will about carbon emissions
But my little corner of the world is doin' just fine

G
I got a hundred acre farm
D

I got a John Deere in my barn

A D A F#m

I got a garden in my yard full of corn, peas, and beans

G

I got a guitar I play unplugged

D

I got a home grown girl I love

A

And when the summertime hits we skinny dip in the stream

G A D

I was green before green was a thing

Solo D G D A D

G

Yea I got a hundred acre farm

D

I got a John Deere in my barn

A D A F#m

I got a garden in my yard full of rudebeka, taters, and greens

G

I got a guitar I play unplugged

D

I got a home grown girl I love

A

And when the summertime hits we skinny dip in the stream

G A Bm E

I was green before green was a thing

G A D

I was green before green was a thing