[Verse]

G

Daddy drove the wheels off a flatbed Ford

Em

Flies found the hole in the old screen door

C

Granny said the dress that my sister wore
To church wasn't long enough

G

Momma poured grease in a Chrisco can

Em

Put a hundred thousand miles on a Sears box fan

C

Uncle Joe put tobacco on my hand
Where them yellow jacket s torn me up

Em

D

And I ain't making this up

[Chorus]

G

Oh, you think I'm talking crazy

Em

C

D

In a different language you might not understand

G

Oh, that's alright

Em

C

D

That's just the kind of life that made me who I am

[Verse]

Bm

C

Just taking my mind on a visit

Bm

Back in time cause I miss it

Am

You wouldn't know how to love it like I love it

C

G

Unless you lived it, and man, I lived it

[Solo]

[Verse]

G

Grand- daddy smoked Salems with the windows up

Em

Drove me around in the back of that truck

C

We drank from the hose and spit in the cup

We all survived somehow

G

Them old Duke boys, they re flattening their heels

Em

Hollywood was fake, wrestling was real

C

Wouldn t dream of spending that two dollar bill

From pushing a lawnmower ?eround

Em

D

I go back there right now

[Chorus]

G

Oh, you think I m talking crazy

Em

C

D

In a different language you might not under- stand

G

Oh, that s alright

Em

D

That s just the kind of life that made me who I am
