

Candy Says
Blind Melon

Artist: Blind Melon
Song: Candy Says
Album: Changes (single)
Trancribed by: Michael MacMillan

This is a great song originally recorded by the velvet underground and written by the great Lou Reed. It s a simple song. Also, I m not sure about the end of the chorus and if I am mistaken, someone please correct me. Any more Blind Melon tabs would also be appreciated.

G D C Em
Candy says, oh I ve come to hate my body

C G D (alternate D and Dsus4)
And all that it requires in this world.

G D C Em C
Candy says, oooohhh, I need to know completely

G D (alt)
What other souls discreetly talk about.

Chorus:
G C D (alt)
I m gonna watch the bluebird fly,

(D/Dsus4)
Over my shoulder.

G C D (alt)
And I m gonna watch him pass me by,

(D/Dsus4)
When I m older.

C G
What do you think I d see,

D C
If I could walk away from me?

Verse II:
Same chords as above.

Candy says, ooohhh, I hate the quiet places
That cause the smallest taste of what will be. (that s what they told me)
Candy says, ooohh, I hate the big decisions that cause the endless revisions in my mind.
(that s why I m doing fine)

Chorus

Solo                            G D C Em C G D

Chorus

That s it. Again it s a great song. Have fun.
