Life Aint So Shitty
Blind Melon

Intro: Bm barre   G barre   Bm barre   G barre   A barre

Verse 1:

```
                         Bm                      G
      Life ain t so shitty,  there s a lot that you can be Bm            G
  A
         And ain t it a pity,    it s alright to smile back at me, and if we both go there,

                                                G
         We count our problems the we might not necissarly,    come in contact with, hey

          wake up, do you know where I m coming from?
```

Play through the intro twice except go from the last A back to G then back to A quickly

Verse 2:

```
                                Bm                               G
      And life ain t so shitty,          there s a lot that you can be Bm                             G
          A
         And ain t it a pity,   it s alright to smile back at me, and if we both
go there,

                                                 G
         We ll count or problems that I might not necissarly, come in contact, if you don t

         know where I m coming from
```

Outro:

```
      Bm      G      Bm      G      A      G      A
```

 Spanish Indy   (quick strumming)

```
    Bm      G      A  G    Bm    G    A  G
    Bm      G      A  G    Bm
```

Be sure to listen to the song to get the rhythm on