That s the basic riff for the whole song, except for one small chord change that I m too lazy to fugure out, and at the end of = the song when they turn on the distortion they play E C and D and the little 5h7 thing (at the end of the tab).

Lyrics

Mouthful of cavities your souls a bowl of jokes ane everyday you remind me how I m desperately in need

See, I got alot of fiends around and they re peaking through nothing new they see you they see everything you do

Seeing everything on the inside, out

Oh, please give me a little more and I ll push away those baby blues Cause one of these days this will die so will me and so will you

I write a letter to a friend of mine I tell him how much I used to love to watch him smile

See I haven t seen him smile in a little while Haven t seen him smile in a little while

But, I know you re laughin from the inside out
Laughin from the inside out I know you re laughin from the inside out

Laughin from the inside from the inside (x3)
from the inside out.
