Verse 1:

D Bm
Passively one day as the
A G
sun rose out of it s house
D Bm
So did this little old guy as
A G
he whistled out of his mouth
D Bm
And happily and gay Well
A G
I guess not exactly that
D Bm
Because he found a special girl

A G
That put him in a special trance

Chorus 1:

D G
He fell in love so quickly
D Bm A D
What the hell was he to expect
Bm
That the girl under his
A G
arm wasn't the same
D G D
As any other girl That he
Bm A D
had thought that he once met
A G
I guess you could only blame fate

Interlude: D--Bm--A--G-- x2

Verse 2:

D Bm
Things started getting
A weird as they started to
G D Bm
kiss She often felt his
A
beard and remembered
G
how her father she'd missed
D Bm
And then quietly one day
He sang a song from
G
deep within his heart
D Bm
Causing some ingestion
A
He finished with a
G
great big fart and

Chorus 2:

D G
She knew at that one moment
D Bm

That song was something

A D

she d heard before

D Bm

So she asked him

A G

to do it again

D G

Then out the door they hurried

D Bm A D

She was gonna find out for sure

Bm A G

So she analyzed his rear end

Bridge:

D

She said When I was a little

Bm A G

girl my dad left my mom

D Bm

He used to always fart and

A G

sing this special song

D Bm

Now I wasn t quite so sure

A G

until your pants did fall

D Bm

Cause now I know that you re my

A G

dad because you use ben wah balls

D

I said a wah wah wah-wah-wah

Bm A G

Wah wah-wah-wah wah

D Bm
