Intro: G# E G# E B C# G# E

G# A# E
I m like a cat in a cage, locked up and battered and bruised

I am the prodigal son, a shameful prodigy too

G# A# E
I am the love of your life, battering ram and confused

I turn each day into night, I stand there waiting for you

G# A# E
There is desire to fight, but I have nothing to prove

With the crowd and some lights, I start to feel things move

G# A# E
Do you have something to hide? Cause I think that we all do

I am a child inside, back up and give me some room

B
I m just a bastard child, don t let it go to your head

E
I m just a waste of your time, maybe I m better off dead

B
They turn us loose in the night, I m fucking Jekyll and Hyde

E
We ll have the time of our lives although we re dying inside

G#
So let me go, go

So let me go, go

E
Just let me go, go

I d rather go it alone

B
So let me go, go

So let me go, go

E
Just let me go, go

I m never coming home

B C# G# E

G# A# E
Don t start to panic for me, cause I have nothing to lose

I am as bright as the sun, I burn up all that I choose

G# A# E
Up on the side of the field I see a city with lights

I touch her face when I kneel, she tells me she s not alive

G# A# E
I am too nervous to run, the kids who scatter and hide

Still reach and grab for someone, but end up buried alive

G# A# E
Her world is waiting for me, a world that I rarely used

I start to feel my feet, they kick down walls as they move

B
I m just a bastard child, don t let it go to your head

E
I m just a waste of your time, maybe I m better off dead
