E,G,C,B x 2

E,G,C,B Once each

Yeah since a foetus, explored life s subtle secrets
From my fingertips to my unique double helix
I can see history, I can see the past lessons
It s your right never be afraid to ask questions

How can every religion, claim to be the only one
How can they preach love
Yet fight each other holding guns
I think the golden sun may be able to shed some light
I d rather push peace and knowledge to defend our right

E,G,C,B Strum

These leaders in suits tell us to fight for one side
You think they got their sons and daughters on the frontline?
Not down for war but down to get an education
we re all evil yet they push synthetic separation
But in this matrix I won t be failin to make it
This is my cosmos baby space sailin with Satan
I heard it s not where your from
It s where your carvin your view
I heard you don t have to wear a suit
To argue the truth and so

Chorus

E,G,C,B Once each

E Who are you to tell me how to live my life (my life)
G

B

Cause I won t give this up,
