D Am G

As the cockerel s giving time

All awake, my

Lady on the water
Share my bread and share my drink
Pay no mind what others think
Lady on the water
Whip this wind into a flame
With your grapes and bottled rain,
Make your wine of my worship
A divinely strange refrain
For to make it rain

My lady on the water
Place your thumb upon my tongue
Be the song no one has sung
Lady on the water
With your jacket blue and strange
Change these rivers in my veins
Into wine, learning, burning,
Driven deep into this maze
All of my days

My lady on the water
Lead me from the wilderness
To countless deserts, dreams, and jests
Lady on the water
Rest my head upon your chest
Leave me only when I m blessed

Cause I ll be in my own country Good and dead and gone to rest That s the way that s the best
