

My Home Town
Blitzen Trapper

Verse:

A D A
A D A
I m goin back to my home town
D G A D
Gonna sit right down and take a look around
A D A
Tall trees talking all along the shore
D G A D
Where the wood meets the river at the forest floor
Bm F# G D
The grass hangs heavy all full of rain
B F# E
The wise dog wanders through the coming grain
A
Now does a true heart change
D A
Or does it stay the same
D G A D
Think I ll go on back to from where I came, yeah

Chorus:

A D A
E Bm
The sound of the siren and the winds that blow
E Bm
They hold no candle to the things I know
D A G D
Oh I m goin back down to my home town
B
Gonna break some ground
D
Take a look around

Cuz I m goin back to my home town
Some love stays leaving some will stick around
Tall trees talking can ya hear the sound
Of the mad man sitting at the river s mouth
Some dance for joy, some sing for rain
Say it ll only take a women to drive a man insane
I ve seen the workers and I ve seen the bums
And they all shine equal in the setting sun, yeah

I m goin back to my home town
Gonna sit right down and take a look around
The fields lay fallow can ya hear the sound
Better call on the spirit cuz I m weathered down

The grass hangs heavy its full of rain
The wise dog wanders through the coming grain
Now does a true heart change or does it stay the same
Think I ll go on back to from where I came, yeah

Chorus
