My Home Town Blitzen Trapper Verse: D Α Α Α D Α I m goin back to my home town D G Α D Gonna sit right down and take a look around Α D Α Tall trees talking all along the shore Α D G D Where the wood meets the river at the forest floor F# G Rm р The grass hangs heavy all full of rain F# в \mathbf{E} The wise dog wanders through the coming grain Α Now does a true heart change D Α Or does it stay the same G Α D Think I ll go on back to from where I came, yeah Chorus: А D Α Е Βm The sound of the siren and the winds that blow Е Bm They hold no candle to the things I know G D D Α Oh I m goin back down to my home town в Gonna break some ground D Take a look around Cuz I m goin back to my home town Some love stays leaving some will stick around Tall trees talking can ya hear the sound Of the mad man sitting at the river s mouth Some dance for joy, some sing for rain Say it 11 only take a women to drive a man insane I ve seen the workers and I ve seen the bums And they all shine equal in the setting sun, yeah

I m goin back to my home town Gonna sit right down and take a look around The fields lay fallow can ya hear the sound Better call on the spirit cuz I m weathered down The grass hangs heavy its full of rain The wise dog wanders through the coming grain Now does a true heart change or does it stay the same Think I ll go on back to from where I came, yeah

Chorus
