Price of Gasoline

Standard Tuning.

Surprised nobody's done this yet! The bass tab's been done perfectly, going to attempt the guitar tab. It's played on two guitars. One of their hidden gems really.

Russell's in the left speaker and Kele's in the right, singing too.

The only part I'm not really sure about is the last chorus and the break before that.

In the break before it sounds like there's some sort of note being delayed I think by Russel, and the chorus I'm just confused about who plays what. But it sounds like what I tabbed... Anyway. Enjoy!

INTRO[0:00]

---

In the intro, Russell and Kele both seem to play with some kind of delay/echo effect on tremolo picked notes.

VERSE

I ve been driving

A mid-sized car

I never hurt anyone

(Is that a fact? Is that a fact? Is that a fact? Is that a fact?)

The price of gas

Keeps on rising

Nothing comes for free

(Make like a stone. Make like a plant. Make like a stone. Make like a plant.)

I can tell you

How this ends

CHORUS

We re gonna win this

We re gonna win this

We re gonna win this

VERSE

With spades and truncheons

Guns and trowels

That is how the War will be won

(Just swat the fly, Just swat the fly, Just swat the fly, Just swat the fly)

Taking care of

Cars and bodies

Nothing ever comes for free

(The ghosts are here. The ghosts are here. Red white and blue. Red white and blue)

I can tell you

How this ends

CHORUS x2

We re gonna win this

We re gonna win this

We re gonna win this
We re gonna win
