G
White kitchen walls with a thousand windows
D
You turn on winsten in the den
E7
And I m still sleep but I can hear the piano
G D
When you make breakfast after 10

D G
And I smell the coffee on your fingers
D
Still smell the perfune in the air
E7
The crushed linen roses on everything
G D
And you re still inside my head

G
You gotta make her know how it feels
D
To miss you, let her know that you re swapping sides
E7
you re not the one with all the problems
G D
No no, you re the one with all the pride
G
So just pick your head up boys, and just walk away
D
Walk the coolest walk that you know

E7
Cause in amonth or two she ll call you
G
You gotta hang up the phone
D G
And I hope she knows I ve got this memory,
D
that won t ever seem to break or bend
E7
A thick lock and sheet rock is on my windows
G D

In the kitchen oh, I don't think I'll take them down again

G

And I've learned a lot from all these break ups and make ups and FUCK UPS and fake ups

D

Things I that I wish you could comprehend

E7

Yeah, comprehend, but for now I'll lace up my wing tip shoes and

G

D

Going out for breakfast with my good friends

G

Yeah, yeah, you gotta make her know, how it feels to miss you

D

Let her know that you're swappin' sides

E7

G

D

You're not the one with all the problems repeat, you're the one with all the Pride.

(Mostly notes around the D chord)

Violen solo

G

you gotta make her know, how it feels to miss you

D

Let her know that you're swappin' spit

E7

G

D

You're not the one with all the problems repeat, she's the one that's full of shit

G

So just pick your head up boys, and just walk away

D

Walk the coolest walk that you know I know you know

E7

G

In a month or two, she'll call you, you gotta hang up the phone.

Good if you've just broke up with a girl, so pass it along if you've got a buddy in the dumps.
