White kitchen walls with a thousand windows
E
You turn on winsten in the den
F#7
And I m still sleep but I can hear the piano
A E
When you make breakfast after 10

E A
And I smell the coffee on your fingers
E
Still smell the perfune in the air
F#7
The crushed linen roses on everything
A E
And you re still inside my head

A
You gotta make her know how it feels
E
To miss you, let her know that you re swapping sides
F#7
you re not the one with all the problems
A E
No no, you re the one with all the pride
A
So just pick your head up boys, and just walk away
E
Walk the coolest walk that you know

F#7
Cause in amonth or two she ll call you
A
You gotta hang up the phone
E A
And I hope she knows I ve got this memory,
E
that won t ever seem to break or bend
F#7
A thick lock and sheet rock is on my windows
A E

In the kitchen oh, I don't think I'll take them down again

A

And I've learned a lot from all these break ups and make ups and FUCK UPS and fake ups

E

Things I that I wish you could comprehend

F#7

Yeah, comprehend, but for now I'll lace up my wing tip shoes and

E

Going out for breakfast with my good friends

A

Yeah, yeah, you gotta make her know, how it feels to miss you

E

Let her know that you're swappin sides

F#7

E

You're not the one with all the problems repeat, you're the one with all the Pride.

(Mostly notes around the D chord)

Violen solo

A

you gotta make her know, how it feels to miss you

E

Let her know that you're swappin spit

F#7

E

You're not the one with all the problems repeat, she's the one that's full of shit

A

So just pick your head up boys, and just walk away

E

Walk the coolest walk that you know I know you know

F#7

A

In a month or two, she'll call you, you gotta hang up the phone.

Good if you've just broke up with a girl, so pass it along if you've got a buddy in the dumps.
