EVERLASTING FRIEND - Blue October

This is my own interpretation of Everlasting Friend. I couldn't find a decent set of chords anywhere, so I tried to figure it out on my own. The end of the song fades out, but I usually just play the chorus and end on G.

==VERSE==

G

A heartbeat skip, relationship inside a bubble bath

Am

An icing drip below your lip so we undo the math

Bm

A sudden slip between my pathetic sedatives

Am

A real-life script of how mistakes became our medicine, so...

==PRE-CHORUS==

G

Delay the hurtful words of complicated overcast

Am

Please take the message that I'm picking up my chin at last.

Bm

I said my confidence it gets stronger when you're next to me, but...

Am

We pray from miles away in quest for what we long to be

==CHORUS==

C

D

G

Em

I might crumble, I might take a fall again (Still missing you)

C

D

G

Em

I might crumble, I might take a fall again (Still missing you)

C

D

G

Em

I might crumble, I might take a fall again

C

But you're my everlasting friend

D

Everlasting friend

==VERSE==

G
A heartbeat skip, relationship so we would stay up late

Am
A teardrop drip below your lip beside the airport gate

Bm
A sudden slip from where we used to be a year ago

Am
A real-life script of how our hands would hold and not let go

==PRE-CHORUS==

G
But delay the mournful words of complicated overcast

Am
Please take the message that you taught me how to live at last

Bm
But I said my confidence it gets stronger when you re next to me

Am
But we wave respect goodbye in quest for what we long to be, but

==CHORUS==

C                      D                      G                      Em
I might crumble, I might take a fall again (Still missing you)

C                      D                      G                      Em
I might crumble, I might take a fall again (Still missing you)

C	D	G	Em
I might crumble,	I might take a fall	again

C
But you re my everlasting friend

==BRIDGE==

D
Will you be coming home? (Everlasting friend)

C	D
My everlasting friend, will you be coming home? (Everlasting friend)

==CHORUS==

C	D	G	Em
I might	crumble,	I might	take a fall again (Still missing you)

C                      D                      G                      Em
I might crumble, I might take a fall again (Still missing you)

C	D	G	Em
I might crumble,	I might take a fall

Again?
