G C
I think I m finally getting tired of this game

G
every night goes just the same

Em C
You try to talk to me about all your sorrow and your pain

D
but I end up walking out on you again

C
I watch you lying on the bed

Em curtains blowing round your head

D C
I see the pictures of the two of us in time

D Am
a world we left so far behind

G
Now I get comfort in the night

Em
losing my head to the colors and the lights

Am G C
You know I tried to be what you want me to be

Am D
but I always come up short, I know I m not the one you really need

G Em
now I don t wonder, no I don t wonder at all

Am G C Am D
why the same things that once held us up are the reasons now that we fall

Em D Am C
maybe we won't come through

Em D Am G C
maybe we're wasting our time

G C G D
till we find a way to say goodbye

C G Em C D

C
and as I'm walking out the door

Em
I know we've been here many times before

D C
but I could never take the sorrow from your face

D Am
or sweep the darkness from this place

G
Now I get comfort in the night

Em
losing my head to the colors and the lights

Am G C
I tried to be everything that you want me to be

Am D
but I wake up every night, I know I'll never be the one you need

G Em
now I don't wonder, no I don't wonder at all

Am G C
why the same things that once held us up

Am D
they're the reasons now that we stumble and fall

Em D Am C
maybe we won't come through

Em D Am G C

yeah maybe it s all been a lie

G C G C G C

till we find a way to say goodbye
