Intro: C# Eb G#-C#-G#

G# C#
G#-C#-G#

Well I d rather be walking through the tall pine trees high up above Lake Louise

G#

C#

G#-C#-G#

And I d rather be chasing after shooting stars than waiting for this dumb
503 TTC

C#

Eb

G#-C#-G#

I d like to see the sun set behind Saddle Mountain

C#

Eb

G#-C#-G#

And listen to the wind whisper my name

C#

Eb

Yeah this world and me don t fit

G#

G#/F#

Fm

One of us is going to have to quit

C#

Eb

G#-C#-G#

Oh how I miss those western skies

And I d rahter be back in the Rocky Mountains than sitting in some bar on Queen Street

And I d rather be back in the high meadows than watching the latest war on my TV

So please don t you stand in my way

I just got to get out of this place

If I waste another day I m sure

The sun will forget my name

Oh how I miss those western skies

F#

C#

G#-C#-G#

Oh to see the sunset in her eyes

F#

C#

Eb

Oh to see the sunshine in her eyes

And I d rather be lying by the bow river watching the clouds go by

Yea I d rather be anywhere else than here tonight stuck in the city

But through the pain good things will come

After the rain the sun

But that don t mean much to me

Stuck in the city

Oh how I miss those western skies

C#

Eb

Cm

Fm

Oh how I miss, Oh how I miss

C#

Eb

C#

G#

Oh how I miss those western skies
