Intro: B C# F#-B-F#

F# B

F#-B-F#

Well I d rather be walking through the tall pine trees high up above Lake Louise

F#

B

F#-B-F#

And I d rather be chasing after shooting stars than waiting for this dumb
503 TTC

B

C#

F#-B-F#

I d like to see the sun set behind Saddle Mountain

B

C#

F#-B-F#

And listen to the wind whisper my name

B

C#

Yeah this world and me don t fit

F#

F#/F#

Ebm

One of us is going to have to quit

B

C#

F#-B-F#

Oh how I miss those western skies

And I d rahter be back in the Rocky Mountains than sitting in some bar on Queen Street

And I d rather be back in the high meadows than watching the latest war on my TV

So please don t you stand in my way

I just got to get out of this place

If I waste another day I m sure

The sun will forget my name

Oh how I miss those western skies

E

B

F#-B-F#

Oh to see the sunset in her eyes

E

B

C#

Oh to see the sunshine in her eyes

And I d rather be lying by the bow river watching the clouds go by

Yea I d rather be anywhere else than here tonight stuck in the city

But through the pain good things will come

After the rain the sun

But that don t mean much to me

Stuck in the city

Oh how I miss those western skies

B

C#

Bbm

Ebm

Oh how I miss, Oh how I miss

B

C#

B

F#

Oh how I miss those western skies
