

A Thousand Miles Behind
Bob Dylan

Doubt this is the original but it is the one found on youtube sung by Bob Dylan and Johnny Cash.

(JC)

F A# F
Down the street the dogs are barking and the day is getting dark
C
When the night begins to fall then the dogs will lose their bark
F A# F
Then the silent night will shattered from the sounds inside my mind
A# C F
And i m one too many mornings and a thousand miles behind

(BD)

G# C# G#
From the crossroads of my doorstep my eyes begin to fade
A#
And i turn back to the room where my love and i have laid
G# C# G#
I gaze across the street to the sidewalks and the sign
C# A# G#
And i m just one too many mornings and a thousand miles behind

(JC)

F A# F
It s a restless hungry feeling and it does nobody no good
C
And everything i m saying you could say it just as good
F A# F
You re right from your side and i m right from mine
A# C F
We re both just one too many mornings and a thousand miles behind

(BD)

G# C# G#
Down the street the dogs are barking and the day is getting dark
A#
When the night begins to fall then the dogs will lose their bark
G# C# G#
Then the silent night is shattered from the sounds inside my mind
C# A# G#
And i m one too many mornings and a thousand miles behind